TOWN CLERK RESIGNS

■ MIKE NEALE – town clerk for just three months

Third senior officer in three years to quit

THE crisis enveloping Seaton Town Council took another turn this week with the resignation of new town clerk Mike Neale.

Mike Neale, 54, tendered his resignation in a letter to town mayor Gaynor Sedgwick on Thursday afternoon after holding the position for just three months.

He was the third town clerk to leave the council in three years, following in the footsteps of Tony le Rich, who also served for only a short period.

At the September meeting councillors and members of the public praised Mr Neale's efficiency, paying tribute to how he had got to grips within 48 hours with a list of disabled issues in Seaton, one of the most controversial matters in the town at the moment.

Mr Neale, who lives in Colyford, was unavailable for comment this week.

Mayor Gaynor Sedgwick has found herself embroiled in an argument with the disabled community over, allegedly, telling blind resident

John Barrington Rowell to "shut up and sit down" at a previous council meeting.

At the September meeting, at which several residents called for her resignation, Councillor Sedgwick said there was a "dispute" over whether she used the words "shut up and sit down" but added she intended no offence to Mr Barrington Rowell or the disabled community.

Seaton has so much potential

Councillor Sedgwick confirmed to Pulman's View that Mr Neale had tendered his resignation in a letter and that she had called a meeting of the full council on Thursday (October 3rd) for the council to "discuss the next step". She was unable to comment further.

After taking the job in June, Mr Neale, a Devonian who worked for 35 years in banking in London, told the View: "Seaton has so much potential and living locally to the town I want to see it fulfil its potential ambitions and become a successful seaside town.

"All the building blocks are in place and now there just needs to be the momentum and for everyone to play an active part to ensure Seaton can shine.

"I am fully committed and want this position to work for me, my family for the town."

A GLASS ornament, valued at £2,000, has been stolen from The Steam Gallery in Beer.

The theft is believed to have taken place on Thursday, September 19th at some point between 2:45pm and 3:20pm.

A police spokesperson said: "Two males entered and stole a glass ornament.

"A witness believes that they spoke with an Essex accent. The first suspect is described as white, stocky build, around 5'10" – 11ft in height with mid-length, brown hair. He was wearing beige trousers with a blue jumper.

"The second man was described as white, shorter than the first male, with short cropped hair and wearing a blue waterproof jacket.

"He was carrying a hessian bag for life which has 'BEER' on the side. It appears that one suspect distracted the lone shop assistant while the second took the item and left the shop."

The ornament was made by Peter Layton and is from the Arrival of Spring collection.

Anyone with any information is asked to call police on 101, quoting reference KN/13 /428.

30 new jobs at Seaton Heights

THE company working to develop Seaton Heights site hopes to bring about 30 jobs to the town.

More than 350 people attended a two-day consultation and information event in Seaton Town Hall, organised by Lyme Bay Leisure.

Lyme Bay Leisure acquired the site in June of this year and put together fresh proposals for the derelict hotel.

Lyme Bay Leisure chairman David Sullivan said: "Currently, the scheme is for a brasserie restaurant, coffee shop, swimming pool and fitness gym open to Seaton residents, and a boutique hotel with 12-15 rooms, plus 42 holiday cottages. These are for all year round holiday and weekend lettings.

"Lyme Bay is confident, when the resort is in full swing, it will provide job opportunities for more than 30 people, including management, holiday sales and marketing, chef and kitchen staff, waiting staff, cleaners, grounds and maintenance staff, pool staff and fitness trainers."

Fears over new Post Office site

PEDESTRIAN safety fears have been raised about the proposed new location for Axminster Post Office.

Post Office Ltd has revealed plans to move Axminster Post Office from West Street to Victoria Place to make it part of Martin's newsagent (McColls).

The proposed move is designed to provide a "modern retail environment" and extended opening hours.

A public consultation exercise runs until November 6th, and the move is scheduled for December this year.

But, as part of the consultation exercise, Councillor Douglas Hull has already written to Post Office Ltd and requested that the matter is put on the agenda for the next Axminster Town Council meeting.

He said: "I speak as a district and town councillor, with a wife in a wheelchair and many constituents who use wheelchairs and sticks – and parents with push chairs.

"I would point out that the pavement is the narrowest in the town and constantly driven over by heavy lorries on this dangerous corner.

"The congestion outside the premises is at present a problem, with people having to step into the street to by-pass wheelchairs, etc.

"Add to this the increase in the number of people, some in wheelchairs, coming to collect pensions as well as ordinary post – this will be an injury waiting to happen."

Town mayor Jeremy Walden echoed the thoughts of Mr Hull, saying: "My personal opinion is that of all the locations in the town, this is probably the worst. "It is potentially very dangerous."

He said, however, that although far from ideal, it may be an acceptable proposal if work is done on the entrance and that another door, currently locked, could be opened up and used as an exit.

A Post Office Ltd spokesperson stressed that the purpose of the consultation exercise is to highlight any concerns, and said: The thoughts of the people who use the service are obviously very important. "The proposals are subject to change following the public consultation.

"If raised, the issue about the entrance will be seriously considered alongside any other points made during the consultation.

"The plans may then be amended before any decisions to proceed are made."

From the editor's chair Town needs stability

MANY will be disappointed and saddened that Seaton's new town clerk, Mike Neale, has tendered his resignation after just three months in the job.

Mr Neale won many plaudits in his short time at the Town Hall, being praised by councillors and residents for the efficient manner he handled a topic that has divided the town in recent weeks, namely the council's failure to deal speedily with the list of issues raised in behalf of the town's disabled.

"At last," people were saying, "we have a town clerk who can rise above the council in-fighting and get a job done."

Mr Neale, who spent 35 years in banking in London in his previous career, was the third occupant of the town clerk's chair as many years.

Many are asking why Seaton cannot keep a town clerk for more than a few months.

This newspaper has not been able to speak to Mr Neale. and the Mayor, Councillor Gaynor Sedgwick, was unable to issue a press release on the resignation until she had the opportunity to speak to the town clerk about his resignation letter.

That press release is expected today (Tuesday) after we have gone to press.

The mayor has called a meeting of the full council for Thursday evening but it is likely that as it is a staffing matter it will be held behind closed doors and a statement issued afterwards.

When Mr Neale was appointed, I wrote in this column that Seaton needed a period of stability, especially with the many initiatives in the pipeline to boost the town's tourism image.

After another chief officer has come and gone, that is more essential than ever.

Seaton has a great deal going for it – the only way for the town to move forward is for all sections of the community to work together. That process has to start in the Town Hall.

♦ THERE will have been many times in recent years that those who have worked so hard to open a heritage centre in Axminster must have wondered whether their efforts would ever reach fruition.

There could not have been a more challenging time to launch such an ambitious project.

At the opening of the renovated upper floors at Thomas Whitty House last week we heard that this was "the end of the beginning".

Let's hope that is the case and John Church and his dedicated committee can now move forward to complete the final project.

COLYTON

Lorry smashes into rooftop

A DELIVERY lorry smashed into the roof of a house in Colyton when driving through a narrow road.

The incident took place in Vicarage Street on Friday afternoon, leaving a chunk of masonry in the road and damaged tiles and thatch on the roof.

The owner of the house, an elderly lady, did not want to be named or make a comment at this time, but neighbours have confirmed this is not the first time the house has been damaged by passing traffic.

Concerned neighbour Paul Arnott said this was the "umpteenth time this has happened", despite the owner of the house writing to Colyton Parish Council asking for something to be done about large vehicles using the narrow road after previous incidents.

Speaking to Pulman's View, parish councillor Caroline Collier said they were in contact with Devon County Council highways and had asked if it was possible for another sign to be placed at the top of the road, warning drivers of the narrow street.

HONITON

Buzz at Beehive

THE Beehive community complex project has celebrated reaching the topping out stage, which in building trade parlance means that the roof is on.

A formal topping out ceremony for invited guests was held on September 26th, including hard hats and the grand tour.

Honiton Town Council is the organisation behind the project, which will see "a modern, purpose-built centre for community, social, arts and business use" in Dowell Street car park.

When complete, the two-storey venue will include a central hall with a seating capacity of 300 plus town council offices and other facilities including a cafe/bar area.

Building contractor Midas hope to leave the site at some point in January, and the venue should be up and running later next year.

Honiton mayor David Foster attended the topping out ceremony and got his hands dirty when trying his hand at bricklaying.

After his brief attempt at being a brickie, he said: "I found it very exciting. I'm impressed with the structure. You can see it coming together fantastically."

Knit and Natter group mark the end of bottle hats project

by Ian Barradale

SEATON Age UK's Knit and Natter group held a 'Homemade Soup and Sausage' dinner to celebrate the completion of this year's fundraising project - knitting little hats to go on the top of 'Innocent' drink bottles.

Their target for 2013 was to knit 12,500 little hats for this year's Innocent Big Knit campaign.

For each behatted smoothie bottle sold, Innocent give 25p to Age UK - a major fundraiser for the Seaton branch.

This year is the tenth occasion Innocent have run this project and to celebrate they decided to have a million little hats on their smoothie drinks bottles during November. Age UK in Seaton were invited to make as many hats as they could.

Although at first dubious about increasing an already huge target, the ladies of the Knit and Natter group set to the task and knitted an amazing total of 19,736 little hats.

The knitters get together at the Age UK drop-in centre at 'Number One' Harepath Road every Thursday afternoon.

Apart from knitting the hats themselves, they also had help from people on holiday in Seaton, family, friends, neighbours and friends of friends, as well as parcels of little hats arriving in the post.

Others hats have been knitted by people who knit for the group but cannot go to the Thursday afternoon meetings.

Help has also come from people who the knitters of the group don't know and have no idea of who they are.

The Knit and Natter group would like to thank all those who have helped knit the hats, as well as all those who have supported them with their donations of wool.

The group has now started a new project knitting fingerless mittens or 'wrist warmers' as part of the 'Keep Warm' campaign.

These mittens will be on sale at craft fairs in the run up to Christmas which will go towards the cost of keeping the Age UK drop-in centre running over the winter months.

The group is open to anyone who would like to join in with this friendly, informal group for a very rewarding and sociable afternoon. Everyone is welcome. The only charge is 60p, which goes towards refreshments.

Interested people can call Anne Howe on 01297 24311 or Wendy Millett on 01297 625256.

The group in Seaton meet every Thursday afternoon from 1:30pm-3:30pm.

Sun shines for annual sponsored walk

The Christian Aid group in Seaton had another fine sunny day for their annual sponsored walk on September 14th. Group member Anita Urquhart said: "There were two pleasant walks to choose from and walkers were well supported by sponsorship. To prove that age is no barrier to raising money for those in need, Herbert Palfrey, aged 97, took part on his mobility scooter. He was accompanied by his son, who walked beside him."

Big turnout for litter pick

NO LESS than 26 volunteers showed up to help with litter picking on the beach in Seaton.

The litter pick took place on September 22nd and was part of the Marine Conservation Society's Big Beach Clean Weekend.

The Seaton litter pick attracted volunteers from as far afield as Exeter and Tiverton and was organised by Ian Waite of Axe Vale & District Conservation Society.

Ian said: "Over 2,000 items were collected weighing 35 and a half kilograms [approximately 77 pounds]."

"Plastic pieces were once again the commonest item found. Axe Vale & District Conservation Society would like to thank the volunteers."

Prior to the event, a Marine Conservation Society spokesperson said:

"Some of our best-loved marine wildlife is under threat from the waste and litter in our seas, with hundreds of species accidentally eating or becoming entangled in litter.

"Litter on our beaches is also hazardous to people so we all have a part to play in turning the tide on litter."

Jobs at Seaton Heights

Almost 200 questionnaires were completed during the consultation, and Mr Sullivan added: "We were overwhelmed by the attendance and absolutely delighted that we got such a positive response. It showed how much Seaton residents care about what goes on in their town."

The consultation exercise showed a clear call for a larger swimming pool and a bigger fitness suite, which the company hopes act on. Mr Sullivan hopes to submit a planning application by the end of September.

He concluded: "With the support of East Devon District Council and the people of Seaton we are determined, and on target, to be on site by next spring, with a view to opening phase one by Christmas 2014."

The proposals can be viewed at <http://www.lymebayleisure.co.uk>

Healthy hearts at charity HALFF

■ HEARTY: Rebecca Varley (HALFF nutritionist), Bryan Wheeler (Heart Hub member), Barbara (Heart Research UK), Kevin Raynor (Heart Hub member) and Laura O'Rourke (HALFF community liaison)

THE national director of Heart Research UK, Barbara Harpham, has paid a visit to a healthy heart project in Axminster.

Charity Health and Local Food for Families (HALFF) started its Heart Hub project a year ago thanks to a £10,000 Heart Research UK and Subway Healthy Heart grant.

The one-year pilot phase of the project has just concluded and it is hoped money will be found for a continuation.

The strategy involves a mix of healthy eating advice and healthy lifestyle advice as a whole, including physical activity – and is aimed at people of all ages.

Mrs Harpham said: "The project has been hugely successful from our perspective, and we hope to work with HALFF again."

Heart Hub member Bryan Wheeler was also pleased with the outcome, saying: "The Heart Hub has made a huge difference to my life. Not just the cooking, but planning meals, looking at labels and budgeting."

"It is difficult to quantify the enormity of what HALFF have done to help me, and it's made a difference to my weekly food bill too."

His fellow Heart Hub member Kevin Raynor added: "I am really going to miss meeting up with the HALFF team, they have helped me so much."

More information about HALFF is available online at www.halff.org.uk, by calling 01297 631782 or by visiting the shop in South Street.

Donations are always gratefully received and can be paid on-line via www.localgiving.com/halff

Sarah and Jane are full of praise for everyone who either sponsored a walker or participated in the walk.

They will stage another walk, in aid of Axminster Tourist Information, on Sunday

Police say car blaze not suspicious

FIREFIGHTERS were called to deal with a blazing car at Weycroft Bridge, Axminster, on the evening of Thursday, September 12th.

An initial report suggested foul play but police have since said that officers attended for traffic control purposes, and no witness appeal has been issued.

The vehicle was a white Vauxhall Combo van and number of calls came in at about 8.35pm.

A spokesperson for the fire and rescue service said: "One fire appliance from Axminster attended this incident. On arrival, crews requested for an additional fire appliance to be mobilised for extra personnel to assist in tackling the fire.

"The vehicle was well alight and crews confirmed that the vehicle was dual-fuelled."

"Firefighters got to work tackling the fire using two breathing apparatus and two hose reel jets. Compressed air foam was also used to assist in cooling the vehicle."

"The cause of the fire is believed to be deliberate."

The following day, though, police said the incident was not being looked into by investigators.

■ BLOSSOMING: The Reverend John Streeting and Axminster mayor Jeremy Walden during the preview

A hymn to flower power

THE five-day Axminster Parish Church Flower Festival attracted locals and visitors alike.

This year's theme was Flowers in Verse, with a wide variety of poems ranging from Pam Ayres to Alfred Lord Tennyson interpreted.

Pam Burge organised a talented team of flower arrangers and the festival was formally opened by Axminster mayor Jeremy Walden during the preview on Wednesday September 18th.

One of the organisers, Joan Davies, said: "The event proved popular with holiday makers as well as local people visiting - and the carnival made it a busy Saturday."

"The festival ended with a spirited songs of praise when favourite hymns were sung."

The event generated a small profit, which will help pay for the upkeep of the Minster.

Project for young people aims to overcome stigma of mental illness

By Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

MORE than 50 people turned up at Axminster Young People's Centre for the opening of The Project - a free service for youngsters with emotional and mental health issues.

The Project is the brainchild of Axminster mother Debbie Humberstone, who got involved with mental health issues among the young when her then 16-year-old daughter suffered problems and was admitted to an in-patient unit. The Project is aimed people aged 12 to 24 living in East Devon, South Somerset and West Devon - and also provides a separate service for parents and carers of young people.

In her opening speech Debbie said: "Four years ago, if someone had told me that I would be standing here talking to a room full of people at the launch of a project for young people with mental health issues, I wouldn't have believed them - on two counts."

"One, I was scared of public speaking and, two, I knew nothing about mental illness."

"Yet four years on, here I am - still pretty scared of public speaking, but now having first-hand experience of mental illness."

"As many of you know, four years ago, life took an unexpected turn when my daughter developed severe mental health problems. Nothing prepares you for your child being affected by a mental illness. There is nothing in the parenting manuals that can help you to understand and cope with the total change that comes over someone once they are in the grips of such an illness. I can only describe it as truly shocking, terrifying and utterly bewildering."

Axminster-based GP Phil Taylor, who also chairs The Project sponsor Axminster Hospital League of Friends, attended the opening and said: "The project provides a really valuable service for a group of people who often don't feel that traditional services suit them."

"We would hope that teenagers would also feel able to engage with the surgery, but The Project is an extra option."

The sessions will provide an opportunity for young people to come together, to talk, to share, give and receive support in a friendly, safe and non-clinical environment. The Project will also run a range of activities ranging from art and cooking to bushcraft and meditation - all designed to build confidence and self esteem as well as helping to support emotional and mental wellbeing. It is stressed that The Project does not offer counselling or other therapy, and is not a substitute for these.

■ UP AND RUNNING: Debbie Humberstone (middle in front row), team members and supporters

Debbie added: "The effects of mental illness ripple out to affect all areas of a young person's life - friendships, school, work, even simple everyday activities can become difficult. "But the effects do not stop with the person with the illness, but also affect family and friends. And this is why The Project will also be offering support to the parents and carers of young people experiencing mental health distress through a monthly support group, which we hope to start in October."

"To date, we have secured £25,000 of funding to set up and run this project and, in the first instance, I would like to thank East Devon Volunteer Support Agency, which agreed to host The Project."

She also praised Axminster Hospital League of Friends, Axminster Care Service, Axe Vale Festival, The Jack Riley Trust, Gibbons Family Trust, Nether Edge Quaker Meeting and Tuckers Arms Raft Clubplus local groups and individuals who helped in various ways. Debbie concluded: "No thanks would be complete without mentioning my daughter, Jess, and for acknowledging her courage and determination in overcoming her issues, for speaking up about what she has been through and allowing me to share her story."

Those who were unable to attend the event can find out more by calling 01404 549 045, 07970 167 341 or accessing www.facebook.com/theprojectYP

All paving slabs were reset, a fence was erected around the school site and repairs to the Loretto Road footpath were undertaken.

It was mad but wonderful: Testudo

THE Testudo Musical Players needed a blockbuster to celebrate their 50th anniversary to test their talents to the extreme.

Since 1963 when Testudo took to the town hall stage for the first time with 'Fresh As Air,' Seaton audiences have been treated to all the big successes of the musical stage.

I have reviewed a few of them down the years, by no means all, and they always provide an enjoyable evening's entertainment.

But when invited to report on the Players' 50th anniversary production, I was told to expect a mad night – and mad it certainly was. Mad but breathtakingly brilliant.

OUR HOUSE Testudo Musical Players at The Gateway, Seaton by PHILIP EVANS

In fact, I would go as far to say that in 40 years of covering the amateur theatre, during which I have sat through some dross, I cannot recall a more entertaining, enjoyable night at a local theatre.

'Our House' features songs from the ska band Madness and was named after one of their most popular singles.

It tells the story of Joe Casey who, on the night of his 16th birthday, takes Sarah, the girl of his dreams, out on their first date.

In an effort to impress her with bravado, he breaks into a building site overlooking his home on Casey Street, which is owned by Mr Pressman, a high-end property developer.

The police turn up, after which Joe's life splits into two: the Good Joe (dressed in all white) who stays to help, and Bad Joe (dressed in black) who flees.

Guided by the narrating spirit of his dead con-man father, Good Joe finally gets his girl and marries her, whilst Bad Joe ends up in jail for manslaughter, having lost his sweetheart and his mum, who dies in a fire as her wayward son plots to get his mother to move out of the family home to make way for Mr Pressman's development greed. It was heart-tugging stuff.

In describing the show to audience before curtain up, producer Mary Bowles described the production as "the challenge of a lifetime" and in his programme notes vice-chairman Ian Craig referred to how the musical had encouraged much needed young blood to join the Players and how such a cult show would test them to the extreme.

Those worries were quickly dispelled and they more than rose to the challenge; they positively revelled in the portrayal of a heart-tugging story peppered with vibrant dance routines and all those great Madness numbers, including, of course, 'Our House,' 'Driving In My Car' and the iconic 'It Must Be Love'.

There's a real vibe about The Gateway now that Seaton's Voice are pumping huge amounts of effort and energy into the old town hall and it was clear before curtain up that the audience were up for a good night out.

With the Madness repertoire, they knew what was coming and there was much stamping of feet even during the orchestra's opening overture.

The show was a personal triumph for Cai Sutherland, who played the role of Joe Casey, a confident portrayal that belied his experience; a young performer with a real stage presence who handled the part of the troubled Joe with equal measures of arrogance and empathy.

His acting skills were matched by a strong singing voice and energetic dancing.

Milly Chaplyn made an ideal Sarah, the girl of his dreams who he won and lost, depending on which Joe (Good or Bad) was centre stage at the time, adding a softness to the proceedings.

Top marks also for the other key cast members – Caraleigh Bradley, Bev Hammett, Joe Sutherland and Sam Ford – Joe's school friends who followed his trials and tribulations in his battle between good and evil, being responsible for much of the humour inflicted with superb timing.

John Kryulko can also take a deserved bow for a wholly believable bad apple in the role of Reecey who rarely wasted an opportunity to steer Joe down the road to ruin and retribution.

The show was not just about the young performers – experience came in bucket loads from Ian Waite as Joe's dad who struggled to get his son not to follow in his footsteps in his narration from beyond the grave, and Karen McEwan, who played the role off Joe's long suffering mum, keeping faith with her wayward son as only a mother can.

The many other roles were shared by a cast of players who gave their all, especially in the dance scenes: Adam Tedbury, Fran Mills Durston, Mark Mills Durston, Larry McEwan, Rosie Manley, Maria Crisp, Stanzi Carpenter, Holly Stock, Victoria Herry, Alison Bennett, Ella Winnett, Jessica Hill, Tilly Winnett, Norman Bowles, Yvette Hill and Thomas Sutherland.

As I left The Gateway, after one of the longest standing ovals I can remember, I shook director Debbie Bradley's hand to say how impressed I was as the tears ran down her cheeks – tears of pride.

"I am so proud of them," she said. And so she should be. It was a mad, mad night – but one that did her and the Testudo Players in this their 50th year more than proud.

Goose Fayre still packed despite weather

■ LEADING CELEBRATIONS: The Mayor and Mayoress of Colyford, Howard and Anne West

■ PLANT SALE: The hall was packed with food, craft and plant stalls

ORGANISERS of Colyton Goose Fayre were forced to move the event indoors for the first time in 22 years due to the forecast rain.

The fayre was scaled down and moved to Colyford Memoiral Hall, rather than the Pountney's field off Seaton Road, for the first time in 1991 but still attracted a huge crowd.

The hall was full of residents and visitors browsing the food and crafts stalls, while entertainment was provided by the Early Music Group from the Woodroffe School in Lyme Regis and a Medieval minstrel.

■ MEDIEVAL MUSIC: The Woodroffe School's Early Music Group and a Medieval minstrel entertain

Many attending still dressed in Medieval costume to add to the historic theme, although the costume procession which usually opens the event was cancelled, and Colyton town crier Derek Wenn was on hand to announce festivities. Chairman of the organising committee, Dave Horrill, was hopeful that they would break even and was pleased how the event went considering the circumstances.

Special offers for new Round Table members

HONITON and District Round Table is opening its doors to new members in the run up to the winter period, with two great offers for men in Honiton.

The organisation is offering two years' free membership for men under the age of 26 and six months' free membership for former or current members of the Armed Forces.

With beer garden weather on the decline and outdoor sport opportunities at a premium, men across Honiton will be looking for a new hobby to keep them busy, which is why Round Table is giving locals a way to get out and do something different in the evenings.

To make it easier for men to find out more about getting involved with their local table, the organisation has a dedicated email address to help with the process. Interested men can email join@roundtable.org.uk for more information about their local club.

Cait Allen, chief executive of Round Table, said: "We are delighted to offer two extra incentives for local men to boost their social life and make a difference to their community. With the children back at school and adults returning to work after the summer holidays, men typically look for new social activities as the darker nights put a dampener on any outdoor plans."

"Round Table is all about trying new experiences and activities, making new friends and putting something back into the community. It's great that so many people have already joined Round Table this year – we've had more new members than previous years and we expect that to increase again during our busy season.

"We're welcoming anyone who's interested in getting involved to go along to their local Table and see what it's all about."

To find out more about Honiton and District Round Table, including how to go along and try an event, email join@roundtable.org.uk or visit www.roundtable.co.uk/findoutmore

Students tell Rotarians about challenging week

THREE Axe Valley Community College spoke to Axminster Rotary Club members about camping, abseiling and other tortuous pursuits, presented to them at the recent Rotary Youth Leadership Award Week.

Matt Cheney, from Axminster, Jonny House, from Seaton and Matt Morbey, from Shute, were guests of the Rotary Club at its meeting on Friday, August 30th.

Presenting impeccably in front of 30 experienced business and professional people, each gave a short presentation of their view of the week to the members.

Each agreed that the experience offered to them was a "chance in a lifetime", but showed respect for the fear they and their colleagues had experienced when confronted with new activities such as over-night camping on Dartmoor, abseiling, and rock climbing.

Each leading a team for a day, they had received an assessment of their skills shown during the week, which would be a useful addition to their CVs when undergoing future job applications.

President Ian Crawford thanked the three young men for their commitment to the course, and for displaying during the week the high standards that had been necessary to be selected to attend in the first place.

■ MEMBERS of Axminster Rotary Club acted as crowd marshalls at Axminster Carnival on Saturday, September 21st.

Rotarian Martin King said: "The Carnival is one of the highlights of our year and we thoroughly enjoy being part of the large band of workers who make it all possible."

"We congratulate all the participants on the floats, the organisers, the backroom boys and girls, the police, fire, and St John Ambulance Brigade, and all the public who thronged to support the evening."

The club's next big occasion for the public will be the Festive Friday celebrations to be held in Trinity Square on Friday, December 6th and members hope that many will note the date and turn up to see Father Christmas from about 5pm that evening.

KILMINGTON

APOLOGIES were received and the minutes read at the opening of Kilming-ton WI's September meeting. There were no matters arising.

The treasurer told members that there will be a subscription increase next year. The Members Communication System was up to date and bank balances satisfactory.

There is to be a trip to a Victorian Christmas Market in Gloucester and the autumn council, at which Toyah Wilcox is the speaker, will be at Plymouth on October 17th.

Barbara was thanked for a very successful Mystery Trip ending with supper at The Golden Fleece.

The competition was won by Barbara Woodsford and the flower competition by Anne Hiett.

This was followed by the guest speaker who told the group about her favourite heirlooms and what they meant to her and her husband.

First was a picture of the Cuillin Hills where the family went for a holiday after their son had had a serious accident and was recuperating. Another was a sand rose and crystal brought back from an Arab encampment in Southern Tunisia before there was much travel in that area of the country.

There were more items from Bukhara on the Silk Road, Hong Kong, Bali and nearer home, a fossil from Lyme Regis.

The highlight was a model of a traditional waka Maori boat which commemorated her 70th birthday, when she was invited to take part in a Maori get-together between groups from Wellington and Nelson.

Barbara thanked her for her delightful talk.

At next month's meeting, Derek Stevens will talk of his boyhood in WWII.

Non-members male and female are welcome to join the group at a charge of £2, including a cup of tea/coffee and biscuits. The meeting starts at 7pm in Kilming-ton Village Hall.

COLYTON

The September meeting of Colyton WI took place after a very hectic weekend for the carnival.

Joan Freeland thanked members for all their efforts, firstly to raise nearly £500 at the WI's carnival coffee morning in August and then for the "laden" market stall on Saturday afternoon, when the group added £200 to carnival funds.

This was all topped by winning second place with their walking group entry in the carnival procession, depicting Royal Ascot.

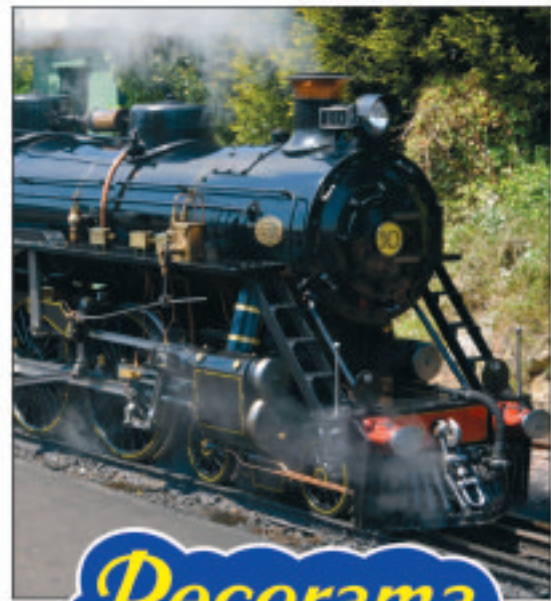

Members enjoyed the meeting, albeit on a dreadful afternoon weatherwise, when they heard about the forthcoming council meeting at Plymouth on October 17th and the group meeting at Musbury on October 25th - so the next month is going to be busy too, as the branch will also hold its usual Harvest/Halloween shared tea on October 15th.

Members listened to guest John who told them all about the Colyton Link, the mwork they do in the community and enjoyed tea and chat.

A coffee morning, organised by the Stead family, was held in the village hall and raised more than £800 with some donations still coming in. Organisers would like to thank all who supported the event.

Advertisers Announcement

THE new academic year started on an extremely positive note for Chard School, as it received an impressive inspection report from the Independent Schools Inspectorate during the summer term. The Head, Mrs Jane Bruce, said "What was most pleasing was the acknowledgement of what I have always known we do well: the excellent quality of the pupils' achievements and learning; the excellent quality of our extra-curricular provision; and pupils of all abilities are highly successful in their learning and personal development. It is a fabulous endorsement in the trust our parents have put in us". The report identified that 'Small class sizes enable teachers to give pupils individual feedback and support as the lesson is progressing and helps the pupils to move their learning forward'.

In addition to this, the Key Stage 2 SATs results achieved by the pupils were excellent with the children achieving well above the national trend. The school is independent, non-selective and located in a peaceful corner of Chard, in beautiful period buildings. Fees are highly competitive and there is a Before-School Club from 8am, and After-School Club until 5.30pm, plus a range of extra-curricular activities which take place every day.

To book your place at our Open Morning on Friday 11th October call 01460 63234 or email marketing@chardschool.co.uk.

Hawkchurch pupils look 'Dahlicious' in costume

IMAGINATIVE COSTUMES: Children at Hawkchurch Primary School as Roald Dahl characters

CHILDREN at Hawkchurch Primary School dressed as everything from crocodiles to Oompa Loompas for the Dahlicious Dress Up Day.

The children attended school on Friday dressed as characters from their favourite Roald Dahl books as part of a nationwide event.

The event raised funds for Roald Dahl's Marvellous

Children's Charity, which supports seriously ill children, with pupils each paying £1 to take part.

Hawkchurch school was buzzing with Big Friendly Giants, Oompa Loompas, Twits, animals and all kinds of "phizz-whizzing" characters.

A MAN was taken to hospital after a two-vehicle collision on the A35 at Shute on Friday, September 13th.

The accident happened at about 8.45pm and a spokesperson for the fire and rescue service said: "Crews confirmed a road traffic collision involving one car and one van. One male casualty was extricated from one vehicle using hydraulic cutting equipment. The casualty was conveyed to hospital by ambulance."

The man suffered head and leg injuries.

FOUR alloy wheels were taken from a Volkswagen Golf R32 parked in a secure compound at Devon Motor Company in Shute, near Axminster.

The theft took place at some point between 9.30pm on Tuesday, September 10th and 8.30am the following day.

Police have issued a witness appeal and can be contacted on 101. The reference is KA/13/492.

FENITON History Group will screen the restored Acland Cine Films in St Andrew's Church, Feniton, on Tuesday, October 8th.

Co-ordinator Christine Gibbins said: "These were filmed by the Acland family of Feniton in the 1920s and 1930s, depicting life in the village. Paul Dibbins has restored the films after they were found in an old farm building."

Admission is free and there will be a raffle and refreshments. Doors open at 7.15pm for an 8pm start.

A LARGE bale of straw was set alight in a field at Ridge, near Stockland.

The incident took place at some point between August 20th and September 10th.

Police are investigating and would like anyone with information to call the force switchboard on 101. The crime reference is KA/13/497.

Vigorous fight against green wedge plans will continue

■ WE feel we must respond to the letters from David Field (Pulman's View, September 10th) and Joyce Steel (Pulman's View September 24th) and clarify our position with regard to the proposed development on the green wedge.

The wetlands have been developed by East Devon District Council to encourage green tourism, and visitor numbers are ever-increasing, some of them from considerable distances. We are very concerned about the potential impact on wildlife should this development go ahead. The area of the green wedge is a very important green and dark corridor for the movement of wildlife between the wetlands and several inland areas and therefore should be defended.

We do not, and have never, opposed redevelopment of the Seaton Heights Hotel, Racial or Harbour Road regeneration sites and, in fact, we do support redevelopment of these before any other sites are considered.

There is a need to replace the old holiday village facilities, particularly to encourage coach parties for short-term stays and any development, possibly at Seaton Heights, must surely be supported.

We are sure most people must be aware that the potential developers for both the Racial and the regeneration sites have successfully overcome the requirement for lower cost, affordable housing which is an issue that many people feel very strongly about. The green wedge developers appear to be following this route and are seeking a reduced affordable requirement.

In the short time that we campaigned in the town against the green wedge development we collected over 300 signatures in support of opposition. This surely must be an indication of public opinion in the town.

Housing developments on the Racial and regeneration sites will increase the footfall in Seaton to a far greater extent than that generated by the green wedge development (400 plus homes compared with 170). These would also be within the town itself – surely more beneficial to traders. This would, of course, also include Tesco!

Mr Field also questions whether the green wedge will become another derelict site. This area has no abandoned buildings on it, is currently some of the most productive farmland within Seaton, and should remain so. We therefore feel there is no comparison in that respect.

We, along with others, will continue vigorously to fight the green wedge application.

Museum should not balme Tesco

■ I HAVE read about Tesco being blamed for many things but to cite it as a major factor in the decline of museum visitor numbers is ridiculous.

Most visitors to Seaton come along Harbour Road and into the lower part of the town and the Square. There is no indication at this point that there is a museum at the top of Fore Street, perhaps that is why fewer visitors reach the museum.

If they get there, then it is very difficult for infirm or disabled people to climb the many flights of stairs to the top floor. The current museum is better than having none at all, but by modern museum standards it is very limited in size and scope with few, if any, special events to attract visitors.

Perhaps the museum should put its own house in order rather than taking the easy option and bashing Tesco.

Stop Line Way is progressing

■ IN response to John Potter (Pulman's View letters, September 24th) regarding the Stop Line Way cycle route, Howard West, Mayor of Colyford, has led negotiations by the Colyford Burgesses to get a route which will minimise traffic disruption on the A3052.

The negotiations involve eight other agencies and individual landowners who have to agree the funding and land purchase for the route. These things take time but the result will be a better safer route for everyone, residents and cyclists.

People in Colyford appreciate the hard work done on their behalf by Howard, his wife Anne and others involved on this project.

Traders don't help with parking problems

■ CHARLES Hill (Pulman's View letters, September 24th) is right to draw attention to the dire parking problems in Colyton. I, and others, have on many occasions given up trying to park to shop there and have turned their cars round and instead taken their trade to Seaton.

In a small town, delivery vehicles do cause unavoidable congestion. However, some of the problem lies with the shopkeepers themselves. Can they not see that if they park their own vehicles all day long outside their premises (as some do) they are making it impossible for their own customers to patronise them?

Town council move not a new issue

■ OH, how well I recall the times when I tried to get Seaton Town Council out of the town hall because it was "not fit for purpose".

Many of the councillors now on the town council, some of whom were then private citizens, rounded on me and others in support of the move in no small way and accused us of "empire building" and "wasting the town's money".

In fact, one of the councillors reported me to East Devon District Council for discussing a move in a private session because we were not yet sure whether it was possible and the council needed to talk about it in private first before deciding whether it was feasible to proceed.

We also faced strong opposition from Seaton's Voice who stated (and I have this on record) that there was no need for the town council to move and that it should stay where it was and all community activities should take place only at the Town Hall.

Both the sites that we tried to persuade other councillors to buy (Willoughby House and St Clare's) had plenty of room for town council meetings and for other community activities and both sites had parking facilities for staff and visitors. St Clare's even had enough space for a gym and leisure facilities with an interested party to provide them, was already converted for use by disabled people, plus we were being offered it at a discounted price because of its social amenity value.

Willoughby House had extra land on which shops, offices or homes for local people could have been built. Now Seatonians face paying through the nose for a small building with no parking facilities, almost no extra space and still the need to hire out rooms at the town hall for meetings.

Seaton missed the chance of a lifetime to buy St Clare's - though now I understand why the town council has been stockpiling residents' money - it has around a year's precept money in its bank account instead of the three to four months that is usually recommended as a suitable buffer.

With NIGEL SPELLER

FATHER Michael Koppel from Axminster opens this week: "We should be grateful for the gift of harvest! Autumn is a favourite time: an opportunity for reflection when the harvest is safely gathered in, a spell of tranquility before the winter storms begin. It sounds idyllic, and it can be that."

"But we all know that, if times are hard in this country, they're much worse in parts of the developing world. Facts like this make us the more grateful for the good things we enjoy – as well as alerting us to the need to help those less fortunate than our selves."

"So let's celebrate the harvest, knowing that all these good things are God's gift to us. But as we do so, let's remember that the gift of the harvest presents us with a challenge to respond with equal generosity, by doing all we can for those who need our support."

"That way we show that our gratitude for the harvest is real!"

The Pope says the church needs to find new balance. In an interview with Italian Jesuit priest, Father Antonio Spodaro, Pope Francis said: "The Church must find a new balance between insisting on its moral teaching and proclaiming the Gospel in a missionary style, if not, even the moral edifice of the Church will fall."

The United Reform Church, Axminster, is the venue on Wednesday, October 2nd, 7.30pm, for a talk on "Romans in the South West". The United Reform Church, Seaton, on Friday, October 4th, from 12noon, offers a Souper Lunch for Christian Aid.

Colyton Grammar School's 40-strong chamber choir recently took part in Evensong at Gloucester Cathedral as part of their three-year cycle performing in the major Cathedrals of the South West.

Harvest Festival at St Andrew's, Colyton, is on Sunday, October 6th at 11am followed by a pasty lunch – donations for Royal Agricultural Benevolent Association.

With the departure of The Reverend Gavin Tyte from the Uplyme and Axmouth Missionary Community, the task of finding a successor has begun, and the Bishop of Crediton has chaired the start of the process which hopefully will bring a successor for the two churches.

The Exeter Diocese leaflet this month has an article on Lay Ministry featuring Tracey Voysey, who is churchwarden at All Saints, Axminster, and also leads the team for All Age services at St Andrew's, Chardstock. Her contributions emphasise that churches would not function these days without lay ministry.

Canon Andrew White from Bahrain, writes: "The constant discussion here is not just Syria, but Iran and Iraq and the rest of the Middle East."

"All whom we encounter are very supportive and what is clear is that we have an important message to share – that God has called us to work for peace in one of the most dangerous areas in the world, to take risks for the sake of the Prince of Peace. He and his Glory are with us always."

"We appreciate the support of Exeter Diocese through the link with Cyprus and the Gulf. Elsewhere, at Paphos, the new Chaplain is to be the Reverend Nicholas Denny-Dimitriou, currently serving in Natal."

Bill Coltham moved to Smallridge, near Axminster, with his wife Sue in June 2004. Having spent his first few years in India, he settled in Kent and spent most of his working life with Kent Police.

WHERE were you born and where did you live before moving to East Devon?

My father was in the Royal Indian Navy and I was born in Bombay (now Mumbai) in 1944. We left India at Independence in 1948 and settled in Tunbridge Wells, Kent. Sue and I lived in Loose, near Maidstone, for most of our married life.

When and why did you move to East Devon?

We both finally retired in 2003 and had visited the West Country many times. My father-in-law had come from Somerset, so it was a good place to start looking. We moved to Smallridge in June 2004, and just felt more comfortable with the pace of life here as Kent was becoming concreted over.

Tell us about your professional background...

I joined Kent Police in 1963, aged 19, and had 23 postings in 30 years due to promotion and "gaining experience", but managed to stay in one family house for most of the time, keeping the two sons' education on track.

I was on the beat, Cadet Training Sergeant teaching law and physical and adventure training instructor for about 120 boy and girl cadets, Operational Inspector and also prosecuted in courts, Staff Officer to the Chief Constable, attended royal visits, hosted dignitaries and prepared operational orders.

As Superintendent, I dealt with community projects, race relations and school liaison issues. Finally, as Area Commander of Medway, I managed the police response to serious firearm crime, in charge of four stations on call 24 hours a day, held the area's budget, and dealt with all local community and media issues.

I retired in 1993. For the next ten years, I worked in the NHS in Bexley, Kent, as Chief Officer of the Community Health Council, responsible for supporting complainants, inspecting hospitals, and sitting on the Boards of NHS Trusts. CHCs were abolished in 2003, sadly, and I was made redundant and retired again.

What was your dream job when at school?

I think I always wanted to be a policeman!

You were involved with the training of guide dogs.

Tell us about it...

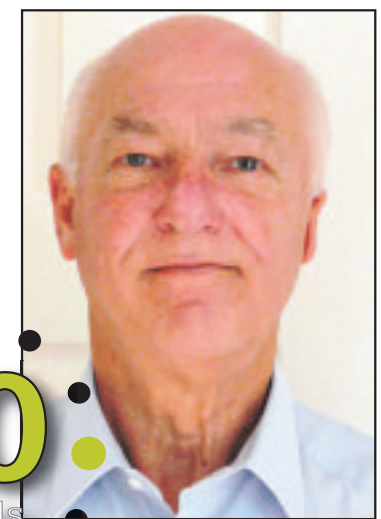

Sue and I decided we would like to puppy walk just before we moved to Devon. We brought Willow, our second pup, with us and have had six other pups since. Most are now guide dogs. Our puppy, Marshall, with his handler Barry, carried the Olympic Torch last year. It is tremendously rewarding to see your pup grow up and be a vital support and friend to a blind person. We stopped puppy walking a year ago to get our lives back but we still fundraise for Guide Dogs.

What, in your opinion, are Axminster's strong and weak points?

We love the town and Smallridge for its peaceful, rural and friendly nature. There seem to be endless obstacles to removing eyesores and promoting the change that is essential to keep attracting tourists and investment.

Do you have any hobbies?

I rejoined Rotary (Axminster) after 20 years in Kent. I am also a member of a busy Rotary motorcycling group; we actively support Guide Dogs activities and I am a Senior Observer with the Institute of Advanced Motorists. I am computer literate and operate websites, Facebook and Twitter. I run a 65 group email for the Neighbourhood Watch locally. I play table tennis, socialise, garden, walk dogs, and have the occasional adventure day out and about. I entertain and support the children and grandchildren. Sleep over the 10 o'clock news.

If you won the Lottery how would you spend the money?

I'd buy a new sewing machine for Sue, a new bike for me, have a big village party, then give the rest to the children (but don't tell them).

WHERE is your favourite holiday destination, and why?

We love Scandinavia for its people, food and freshness.

Sports Therapy

Sports Therapy is an aspect of healthcare that is specifically concerned with the prevention of injury and the rehabilitation of the patient back to optimum levels of functional, occupational and sports specific fitness, regardless of age and ability.

It utilises the principles of sport and exercise sciences incorporating physiological and pathological processes to prepare the client for training, competition and work.

Although some physiotherapists focus on sports-related cases, sports therapy and rehabilitation is a separate profession, requiring a 3 year intense study at university. It is concerned with musculo-skeletal conditions arising from physical activity, not with general healthcare.

To sum up the work of a sports therapist:

Diagnose
Treat
Rehabilitate
Prevent injuries

Dealing with injuries from any background

Laser Therapy (LLLT)

Low level laser therapy (LLLT) is the application of red and near infra-red light over injuries or lesions to improve wound and soft tissue healing, reduce inflammation and give relief for both acute and chronic pain. It is used to: increase the speed, quality and tensile strength of tissue repair; resolve inflammation and relieve pain.

The effects of LLLT are photochemical (like photosynthesis in plants). When the correct intensity and treatment times are used, red and near infrared light reduces oxidative stress and increases ATP. This improves cell metabolism and reduces inflammation.

LLLT is popularly used for acute and chronic pains including; soft tissue injuries, fractures, joint conditions such as osteo and rheumatoid arthritis, neuropathic pain, non-healing leg pressure and diabetic ulcers, post operation recovery and general body pains.

As well as tissue repair and pain relief, LLLT is used in sport as a performance enhancing aid. Increasing ATP and reducing oxidative stress gives the athlete an increase in endurance, allowing them to train longer with little or no effect from DOMs and an increased time on muscle repair.

LLLT users include British and US military, premier division football teams, Olympic teams, Formula 1, national rugby and cricket teams and specialist pain clinics.

Summer reading a huge success for library

HAVING summarised this year's Summer Reading Challenge, staff at Axminster Library has deemed it a record-breaker.

The library was recently packed with children who had borrowed and read at least six books over the summer.

Sarah Jones of Axminster Library told Pulman's View: "As you could see we had over 100 children at the party."

"We are sure that is a record for the number of children in Axminster Library at any one time.

"We have been thrilled and delighted by the number of children who wanted to read through their summer holidays.

"We have had to 130 finishers, which far exceeded our expectations and the target we set ourselves of 100 children."

Free Car Seat Safety Check

Babygear Car Park Bridport DT6 3RL • Sat Oct 5th 3.30-6.30

PARENTS are putting young children at risk of serious injury by fitting the wrong type of car seat.

The AA and car seat manufacturer Britax conducted a joint survey, and found that just 32.5% of drivers installed child car seats properly and, worryingly, more than 83% of drivers questioned were unaware of the UK's strict rules on the use of child car seats.

Researchers visiting a council car seat fitting clinic in Cambridgeshire found every single one of the car seats bought on line was wrong for the car, wrong for the child or incorrectly fitted! Which? magazine warned against buying child seats from websites which offer inadequate advice and no fitting service. Which? found independent retailers the best for offering sound accurate advice with Major supermarkets Tesco and Asda coming bottom in the survey scoring just 22 per cent and 4 per cent respectively.

UK law states that all children travelling by car must use a suitable car seat until they are 135cm tall or 12 years old Babygear is celebrating 30 years of fitting car seats and cares about your child being safe. We price match where we can and always have some really good deals and discounted prices. We will also fit and advise for free! Which? Magazine advises parents to go to a store and try them out, with your child and your car.

Do you value your child's life?? If so then please come to Babygear on October 5th to have your car seat checked by trained staff. There will be no charge and the check should take approx. 10 mins.

Canadian celebrates receiving British passport with weekend in Axminster

THERE are many ways to celebrate getting a British passport.

London-based Canadian Lisa Long summoned about 40 friends from all over the world for a weekend of celebration in and around Axminster.

Working in the software sector, she has been based in London for about ten years and decided to apply for a British passport.

Apart from really liking it here, a British passport would make life easier as she works all over Europe.

She explained: "There will be no worries about a visa within the EU."

The application process involves a requirement to have lived in Britain for a set number of years, a citizenship test and more.

Lisa added: "It is a bit challenging to become British."

She got her passport in May and was so thrilled she asked friends from all over the world to come and celebrate.

As a result, about 40 people from across the world, including Spain, Holland, Venezuela, Norway, Poland Canada, Portugal and more, gathered at Cranberries Hideaway in Kilminster on Friday, September 6th for a weekend of celebration.

To emphasise Britishness, the group was entertained by morris dancers on the Saturday and enjoyed a traditional Sunday roast the following day.

Photography on the wild side

■ OTTERS, eagles, owls and other birds of prey were on hand at Escot Estate near Ottery St Mary for budding photographers to snap under the tutition of animal photographer Richard Austin

THERE is a new opportunity at the Escot Estate for budding animal and wildlife photographers to hone-up their skills under the professional eye of award winning freelance news and animal photographer Richard Austin.

Red squirrels, otters, an army of ducks and a Golden Eagle are just four of the subjects the group of eight photographers were able to photograph from all angles.

The daylong session enabled the photographers to practice their skills using the modern technology that today's cameras possess.

Said Richard: "Escot have something really exclusive going on with the unique red squirrel enclosure and a great family of otters, I mixed it up a little with wildlife pictures and a few toy props which the squirrels took to immediately."

Richard added: "There was an Eagle Owl, Barn Owl, Golden Eagle and a Harris Hawk all flying and giving the group a unique experience trying to capture that award winning spectacular shot all photographers chase after."

Award winning photographer Richard, has been photographing animals and wildlife for the media for over 30 years, his images are published all over the world, he has published four books based on his "Animal Magic" column and had his own award winning six-part TV series "Richard Austin's Animal Magic".

On two separate occasions his animal pictures have resulted in questions being asked in the House of Commons at Prime Minister's Questions.

Make moving home less stressful for your dog

You know moving house it is going to be stressful for everyone involved including your dog. There will be so much disruption, imagine what it is like for your much loved pet, their normal routine has gone as everyone is busy doing different things. The whole world your dog has become familiar with, such as smells and household objects has changed dramatically and you should be aware that your dog could become stressed.

Why not consider placing your dog in our caring boarding kennels for the duration of your move. We will ensure your pet is kept safe, therefore minimising the affect on their stress levels whilst you and the rest of the family deal with the move. After the move to your new home when everything is unpacked and a semblance of normality has been restored you can collect your dog. It is important that you then give them the required time and attention needed for them to settle into their new environment. If you do decide to place your dog in our kennels you will need to ensure the dog is up to date with vaccinations and worming.

The Priory Residential Care Home

CHANGING Perceptions, changing lives - The aim at The Priory is to promise the individual, their families and the community the highest quality elderly and dementia care, enhancing each person's world through changing perceptions and changing lives. They also provide the same great services, in the comfort of your own home.

The Priory is dedicated to the care of people who have decided they can no longer manage in their own home. Everyone who decides to join us is treated as an individual and carefully assessed so that an agreed plan of care can be worked out. Clearly some residents require more help than others but all receive the same quality of care delivered by our staff under the direction of the Manager, Gillian Kirkman.

The Priory is registered for elderly care, including Alzheimer's, dementia, elderly frailties and physical disabilities. All our care staff are professionally trained to a minimum of NVQ2 and they receive on-going training in First Aid, Health and Safety, Food Hygiene, Lifting and Handling and Dementia Care.

We have an excellent team of bright and happy carers and ancillary staff dedicated to making The Priory a really nice place to live.

Each resident is allocated a key carer who has a special responsibility for ensuring their comfort and well-being, who is there to listen if problems arise and to act as a channel of communication in case of need.

Depending on the accommodation we have available at the time of an enquiry, we can offer full-time residential care, convalescent care and respite care. Day care is at the discretion of the Manager. Length of stay can vary from a few days to months or years. Enquiries should be addressed to the Manager, Telephone 01404 812939.

The Priory has a sister company called the Priory Home Care Service, bringing Care Services directly into peoples' homes.

We understand that many elderly people prefer to stay in the familiarity of their own home surroundings, for as long as possible, before entering The Priory for full 24 hour care and support.

And we know that it can be hard, and that sometimes you just need a little help.

Or sometimes, a lot of help. Or we can just come along for a chat, a cup of tea and a bit of company.

Burma comes to Lyme Regis

Northern International Theatre bring performance to Marine Theatre

NORTHERN International Theatre brings a compelling performance to Lyme's Marine Theatre on Friday, October 18th.

'The Burma Play, a comedy of terror' is a humorous, politically-sharp two-hander with original live music. Virtuoso performances run through the years of empire and dictatorship towards the current hopes and fears of the Burmese people.

A popular entertainer struggles to restore his damaged memory by going over his life and times. All he can recall is darkness and fear. His colleague pushes him to face the past by replaying their repertoire of gags, wordplay and sketches.

By turns darkly funny, poignant and tragic, a series of ingenious quick-cutting scenes communicate a modern history of Burma and its special connection with the UK.

After a short interval the hour-long performance is followed by a cast/audience discussion. Change has recently come to Burma, including the release of Aung San Suu Kyi and her election as an MP. But many political prisoners remain in jail; forced labour, ethnic and religious violence, displacement of people and the use of child soldiers continue. Recently asked how democratic Burma is on a scale of one to 10, Aung San Suu Kyi replied 'We are on the way to one'.

The audience at this performance will include Anna Roberts (Director of the Burma Campaign UK) and Kate Allen (Director of Amnesty International in the UK), so the discussion will have an extra flavour.

Northern International Theatre is a professional group brought together specifically to present The Burma Play. They have performed from the Edinburgh Festival Fringe to the Burmese community in London's Thingyan festival. They work free of charge: all the evening's proceeds will be shared between The Burma Campaign and Amnesty International which both support democracy and safety for the Burmese people.

Director David Bell, born in Burma, has clocked up more than 50 plays in fringe, regional and touring theatre. Anglo-Burmese performer Cilla Baynes's father was in the next room to Aung San, the independence leader and father of Aung San Suu Kyi, when he was assassinated in 1947. Director of Community Arts Northwest, Cilla was awarded an MBE for her work. Musician/composer Omar Sattaur lived as a journalist in South Asia and now performs with several ensembles including the international fusion band Beating Wing.

“ The Burma Play is a superb melding of the talents of writer, performers and director who create a moving and powerful evening of theatre. Author Pam Sandiford has combined scholarly research and humanitarian passion to unfold her story.”

Evening Mail, Cumbria

The play is promoted by the Lyme Regis Group of Amnesty International, the performance is at 7.30pm on Friday, October 18th. Tickets cost £7 (£6 concessions) online from www.marinetheatre.com, from the Tourist Information Centre in Lyme Regis (01297-442138), by calling 01297 442237, or on the door.

Australia's number one cleaners

'Tex' and 'Cajun' come to Awliscombe

Noel 'Tex' Harrison and 'Cajun' Phil Rossiter will perform a concert of country music in Awliscombe this October.

Noel "Tex" Harrison is best known to VIA audiences as the original "Windmills of Your Mind" man, whose Oscar winning worldwide hit from the 1968 film "The Thomas Crown Affair" launched him into super-stardom. Noel has always loved country music and Tex-Mex. Finding someone as enthusiastic and talented as Phil to pick and grin with has been a great delight.

Phil Rossiter (aka Cajun Phil) has been singing and playing music since... well – a long time a long time ago! He currently plays guitar, mandolin and button accordion. Apart from having a good time with Noel Harrison, he also works with other bands, including a gypsy and swing jazz group, and K-Zee Zydeco Band – an Exeter based 6 piece zydeco and Cajun music outfit playing creole music from Louisiana.

Phil met Noel when K-Zee played for Noel's second wife's birthday party. Recognising a kindred spirit, he has had the great fortune to work with Noel for a few years now. Phil played with Noel's band at the 2011 Glastonbury Festival.

Come and enjoy a great Villages in Action event in St Michael's Awliscombe at 7.30pm on Saturday, October 26th. Tickets are available from David Chippington (01404 43480, adults £7, children £5, and family tickets £20).

WINSTON ON THE RUN

A ONE-MAN play about Winston Churchill's little known early life is about to embark on a national tour. Created by London-based company, Fol Espoir, 'Winston on the Run' comes to The Bike Shed Theatre, Exeter on Monday 28th October, as part of a national tour which runs until November 2nd. The show tells the story of Churchill's war-time experiences in South Africa, and his astonishing escape across hundreds of miles of savannah to rejoin British lines.

The show is co-created by writer and actor Freddie Machin and Fol Espoir's Artistic Director, John Walton. The UK tour follows a successful run at Edinburgh Fringe in 2012 and an award-winning performance at Buxton Fringe Festival in the same year, where it earned Machin the 'Best Actor' prize.

It's 1899 and the 24-year old Winston is approaching the twentieth-century with little to his name but a shambolically unsuccessful election campaign. Neglected by his parents and a failure at school, Winston takes a job as a war correspondent and finds himself posted in South Africa, embroiled in the Boer War. Less than a month later, he is an escaped prisoner-of-war, on the run in the vast South African savannah, taking cover at the bottom of a deep mineshaft. With nothing but rats for company, the young Winston's mind quickly sinks into paranoia and despair. As the moment for a fresh break approaches his sanity teeters on the brink. What will await him at the surface? Freedom or capture? Fame or disgrace? Triumph or disaster?

Despite being voted 'greatest Briton of all time' in a BBC poll, surprisingly little is known about Churchill's formative early experiences. His daring escape was a defining point of his early life, catapulting him to international fame and jump-starting his political career. 'Winston on the Run' shows a young Churchill confronted by both a dangerous enemy and his own 'black-dog' of depression. In learning to never surrender, he began his ascent towards political greatness.

Freddie Machin's writing credits include '12 Miles from Nowhere' (nominated for the 2012 Best Play Award by the Writer's Guild of Great Britain), 'Pavlik Morozov' (Royal Opera House), 'Chicken' (Southwark Playhouse), and 'Neal and Keira' (rehearsed reading, Chichester Festival Theatre). As a performer he has appeared in 'Kes' (The Royal Exchange), 'Celebrity Night at the Café Red' (Trafalgar Studios) and 'Hoffmania' (National Theatre Studio).

Director John Walton's previous shows include the sell-out hit 'Dr Brown Because' (Edinburgh Fringe, 2010), and the English language premiere of Yukio Mishima's 'Yoroboshi' (New Wimbledon Studio). Other directing credits include the devised comedy show 'Potato - A Show That Will Save the World' (Edinburgh Fringe and European Tour), a musical version of 'A Little Princess' (Hedgerow Theatre, Pennsylvania) and 'Blasted' by Sarah Kane (Old Fire Station, Oxford.)

Fol Espoir is funded by Arts Council England. To book tickets call the box office on 01392 434169.

Major Hollywood Star to Celebrate National Poetry Day in Lyme Regis

HOLLYWOOD A-lister Natascha McElhone is making time from her busy film schedule to appear in a special event at The Marine Theatre in Lyme Regis on Friday, October 4th at 7.30pm. 'Look, Stranger' celebrates National Poetry Day through the poetry of WH Auden - arguably the greatest English poet of the 20th Century, who died 40 years ago this month - and the songs of Benjamin Britten set to Auden's poetry, in vibrant new jazz arrangements by Ruthie Culver & The UtterJazz Quartet.

McElhone shot to fame in 'Surviving Picasso' with Antony Hopkins, going on to leading roles in 'The Truman Show' with Jim Carrey, 'The Devil's Own' with Brad Pitt, 'Ronin' with Robert De Niro and 'Solaris' with George Clooney. Her latest film is a new version of Romeo & Juliet scripted by Julian Fellowes (creator of Downton Abbey) and co-starring Damian Lewis, due for release later this month.

For television she was acclaimed for the title role in 'The Other Boleyn Girl' and now has ongoing lead in the hit US series 'Californication' with David Duchovny. However, her early acting career included many theatre classics such as Shakespeare and Chekhov, so 'Look, Stranger' is rare opportunity to return to the poetic language she so loves. She will also be reading for the Forward Poetry Prize event at London's South Bank Centre next week, alongside Helen McCrory and Juliette Stevenson.

McElhone's moving book 'After You' was published in 2011 about the untimely death of her beloved husband Martin in 2008, and the aftermath of being left with two young boys and pregnant with a third.

UtterJazz was created by singer Ruthie Culver to create inspiring live events with jazz and poetry. The performance of 'Look, Stranger' in Lyme Regis is part of a current Arts Council funded UK tour. Actors reading Auden at other venues include Samuel West and Sir Derek Jacobi. The show has been a sell-out success at its 3 performances so far, with jazz singer Ruthie Culver and her UtterJazz Quartet bringing swing, samba, funk, blues and grooves to Britten's stunning melodies and harmonies. With 'satirical, romantic and witty' lyrics by W.H. Auden, they are reinterpreted through all the technicolour influences of 21st century jazz, infused with classical sounds and unique improvisations that everyone can enjoy. The hugely talented, multi-discipline musicians in the UtterJazz Quartet have appeared with Ravi Shankar, STOMP, Groove Armada, Cleo Laine, Nigel Kennedy, The Sixteen, Herbie Hancock, Antonio Forcione, English Touring Opera & Jarvis Cocker - but not all at once! Full details at www.ruthieculver.com/look-stranger.

'Look, Stranger' featuring Natascha McElhone will be performed at the Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis this Friday, October 4th at 7.30pm.

Tickets cost £14 and £12 for concessions, and TheatreFriends Discount is available. To book or for more details visit www.marinetheatre.com or call 01297 442138

ART AND MIND

To celebrate 'World Mental Health Day' Thursday, October 10th, Thelma Hulbert Gallery (THG) will be highlighting the work of 'Art & Mind' with a display of participants' work across the landing of the gallery from Saturday, October 5th to Saturday, October 19th.

On Thursday, October 10th 'Art & Mind' co-ordinator Christine Barkla, from Mind (the leading mental health charity) will be at the gallery between 2pm and 4.30pm to provide information about the 'Art & Mind' sessions, join her for more information and/or take part in an informal art activity to mark 'World Mental Health Day'.

'Art & Mind at THG' offers an afternoon of artmaking in a safe and welcoming atmosphere, for people who have experience of mild to moderate stress, anxiety or depression, or who care for someone who has. The group aims to make artwork with a link to the exhibitions in the gallery, giving free rein to participants' own creativity in response to the work on show.

The sessions are held in the Learning Room upstairs in the gallery, from 2.30 - 4.00pm on the last Tuesday of each month.

Art & Mind co-ordinator Christine Barkla is employed by Mind in East Devon, a charity providing a range of mental health support services based at the Haven in Honiton. These include activities and groups to promote wellbeing, and recovery based individual support.

Art & Mind at the Gallery is open to anyone who feels they would benefit from and enjoy the group. For more information, contact Christine at Mind: christine.barkla@mindexeter.org.uk, phone 01404 42343 or the gallery info@thelmahulbert.com, phone 01404 45006.

Two Choirs, Two Remembrance Requiem, Two Venues

ON Remembrance Sunday, November 10th, two choirs will perform requiems in St Paul's Church, Honiton. Starting at 7.30 pm, the performances are designed to raise awareness of the work of the Royal British Legion. This is a non-ticket event. Entry will be free but members of the public are advised to arrive early to secure a seat for this well-advertised Royal British Legion 'County Event'.

The first half of the evening will be devoted to Howard Goodall's popular 'Eternal Light'. Sung by Honiton's own Sheldon Singers, under the musical direction of Julie De'Ath-Lancaster, this work is described by the composer as a 'Requiem for the Living'. It combines the words of the Latin mass with reflective poems such as John McCrae's 'In Flanders Fields', written during the First World War.

After an interval, the Taunton-based Collegium Singers will perform, 'For the Fallen', written by their Musical Director, Peter Leech, and dedicated to 40 Commando Royal Marines. This requiem adds the 'We will Remember them' invocation and 'Per Mare per Terram', the Royal Marines motto, to the Latin mass. It also includes the hymn 'Abide with Me' in which the audience is asked to join.

This year's remembrance events will be the last before the start of commemorations to mark the start of the First World War in 1914. As part of those commemorations, the government is funding a scheme to send two pupils and a teacher from every senior school in the country to visit the First World War battlefields. This evening will be an opportunity for senior school pupils, their parents and teachers to begin to reflect on what will be a recurrent theme during 2014.

As well as the musical element of the evening, there will also be a display illustrating the work of the Royal British Legion and an opportunity to donate generously to help that work. Books, CDs and a commemorative programme will also be on sale.

For those unable to attend on November 10th, the evening's programme, in its entirety, will be repeated on the following evening, Monday, November 11th, in St John's Church, Wellington.

For further details of both choirs, see www.sheldonsingers.org.uk and www.collegiumsingers.org.uk.

Deliveries begin of new Nissan Note

ADVANCED, accessible technology and dynamic design have arrived in the B-segment with the first deliveries of the innovative new Nissan Note starting this week.

Note production is now in full flow at Nissan's biggest European manufacturing plant in Sunderland, UK. With a full suite of advanced technologies normally found in the premium sector and a bold design accommodating a highly versatile cabin, the Note makes a highly compelling package for B-segment customers.

To date, Nissan has already taken more than 14,000 pre-orders for the new Note - an early indication that the new model is ready to exceed the expectations of a wide range of both new and existing Note drivers. Thanks to its dramatically enhanced design, technology and quality, the new model is expected to be one of Nissan's best-sellers with sales anticipated to exceed more than 100,000 cars per year in Europe.

Geraldine Ingham, chief marketing manager for Nissan in Europe: "New Note fulfils a really important role in our new product portfolio, combining smart design with purposeful technology that has never been offered in the B-segment before. We've used design and engineering innovation to make premium technologies accessible to everyone."

John's Motor Repairs

Providing a professional repair service and quick state of the art Diagnostics

John's Motor Repairs in Sidmouth found their Automated Test Lane MOT Station to be a great success, being the very latest in MOT technology. This gives them a competitive edge with MOT testing and allows their fully qualified MOT testers to carry out your test efficiently in the best environment possible and to the highest standard. The MOT bay not only enables 'one man' MOT testing and reduces labour costs, but as it is fully digitized, the likelihood of errors, mistakes and omissions is reduced – this ensures that your vehicle is in a safe and roadworthy condition.

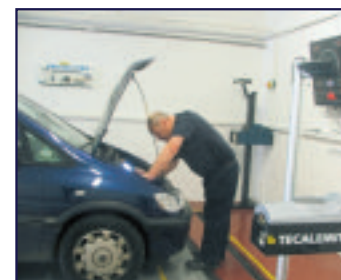

Also, John's Motor Repairs have recently set up a New Tyre Bay at their garage; enabling them to change and repair your tyres, check your balances and more. They also have a large stock of tyres available.

John's Motor Repairs is a friendly and customer focused garage offering you the highest quality service, providing a professional repair service and quick state of the art diagnostics for fault finding, and giving you the cost of any repairs before starting the job.

If you are looking for a reliable and trustworthy garage, then visit John's Motor Repairs! Whether you need a service, MOT, Diagnostics, or your vehicle needs mechanical repairs; they have both the expertise and facilities to take care of your vehicle.

FENITON SMASH EIGHT PAST BUDBLEIGH

Shock for Dolphin as Honiton's Genders bags four goal haul

FRESH DEVON & EXETER LEAGUE - ROUND-UP

HONITON TOWN shocked Division Two leaders and rivals DOLPHIN 5-0 with what supporters described as their best performance in years. Four goals from Tim Genders and one from Dan Broom destroyed the Exeter team who have been on a brilliant run including their capture of the Division Three title five months ago.

Meanwhile Premier champions FENITON really got their act together against BUDBLEIGH SALTERTON as they routed the robins 8-1. Charlie Selley with a hat-trick and doubles from Ben Ede and Dave O'Connor, and a Paul Dowling single put paid to the robins whose sole reply was from Richard Higham.

NEWTOWN'S 2-1 win against SEATON TOWN takes them joint top alongside ST MARTINS whose trip to HATHERLEIGH will take place another day as the North Devon side called off because of a water-logged pitch.

THORVERTON also won 2-1 at home to winless BEER ALBION, and the UNIVERSITY kicked off their season with a 3-1 victory at TOPSHAM TWN.

HEAVITREE UNITED also postponed as Wingfield Park was waterlogged in some areas.

BOW AAC missed the chance to go top of Division One when they were held 0-0 by EAST BUDBLEIGH, but that enabled SIDBURY UNITED to slip into third place with a 2-0 win at ALPHINGTON.

WITHERIDGE beat HEAVITREE UNITED 3-0 with Tom Williams scoring twice, but manager Darry Hancock was better pleased by keeping a clean sheet for once.

Assistant CULLOMPTON

TON RANGERS manager Paul Howe scored the equaliser that earned a 1-1 draw with TIPTON ST JOHN, but WELLINGTON TOWN eased their position with a 5-1 success at BICKLEIGH. Jamie Fleet, Aaron Warren, James Rowley, Luke Berry and Sam Towler scored the Wellington goals.

With Dolphin crashing to Honiton, EXWICK VILLA took over the Division Two leadership with another impressive result winning 3-1 at DAWLISH UNITED.

A goal three minutes from time earned LYMPSTONE a 2-1 win at home to PINHOE who after having a man sent off then equalised through Adam Langford thought they had done enough for a draw.

HALWILL came from behind to beat COLYTON 3-1, Thomas Ogborne scoring twice and Elliot Collins once.

TOPSHAM won 3-2 at CREDITON with Jason Williams scoring twice, and Josh Dryhurst was the WESTEXE ROVERS scorer in a 1-1 draw at SOUTH ZEAL.

UPOTTERY share top spot in Division Four following their hard earned 4-3 win against CHULMLEIGH, and CHAGFORD are suddenly on a roll after they despatched AXMINSTER TOWN 5-1. Josh Stanbury 2, Ashley Jackson, Oli Squires and Will Hutchinson scored for the moormen.

In Division Four there was an amazing five goal feast for Julian Wills of the LORDS XI as they won 5-2 at SANDFORD. Wills got a hat-trick in the first twelve minutes and went on to add two more.

MORCHARD BISHOP who came so close to withdrawing both their teams this season enjoyed a 4-3 success in Division Five against LANGDON with Liam Scholfield notching a brace.

Jamie Phillips hammered three goals as WESTEXE sent DUNKESWELL packing 6-0.

Division Six leaders OTTERTON won 6-2 against HALWILL with Kev Pitt and Lee Mitchell scoring twice, and Paul Orchard enjoyed a hat-trick for UPLOWMAN as they ransacked EAST BUDBLEIGH 8-0.

In Division Seven HENRYS CRONIES conceded three goals in a mad five minute spell against BRADNINCH but recovered to win 5-3, Ryan Burrows getting a hat-trick.

* Both Feniton and Topsham Town held a minutes silence before their Premier matches in remembrance of former players. At Feniton the team paid their respects to former player and referee Alan Hutchinson and Topsham duly remembered Gary Bond who was a prominent player in the Exeter area with several clubs.

YOUTH FOOTBALL

AFTER defending for most of the first-half, new boys Sidmouth Vikings got their noses in front at fellow newcomers, Apollo FC.

But their hopes were then shattered in the second period when the South Devon side ran out 2-1 winners with a brace of goals from Ryan Bush.

Hornets prepare for new season

THE Honiton Hornets warm-up to 2013-2014 hockey season got under way with two recent friendlies.

The first of these matches saw Honiton away to Yeovil & Sherborne where the East Devon side came away with a 3-1 win.

The first goal of the new season was scored by Jean Herniman and this was followed by two own goals (the new rule allowing a goal to be scored from a strike by any player, regardless of team membership, within the circle).

The following game at Dawlish, who included Honiton players to make the teams even, resulted in an 8-6 win for Honiton whose scorers were; Dawn Mayo (3), Kathryn Tucker (2), Amy Phillips and two own goals.

During the first 15 minutes the home side seemed to be heading for a big win as they led 4-0 but then the Honiton players began to narrow the gap, so that by half-time it was all-square at 4-4.

cricket seaton awards night

SEATON Cricket Club's annual awards night took place last week with at the club's Court Lane Ground. Head chef and 2nd XI captain Ian Hunt put on a fine display of food as a reward for a successful season on the pitch. The evening started with presentations for the Colts.

A very young squad played in the East Devon Youth Cricket League U11s section, and whilst match wins were thin on the ground there were many notable performances throughout the season coupled with much enthusiasm from players and parents alike.

U11 Batsman of the Year was Woody Thorp, U11 Bowler of the Year went to Jed Pinnock, and U11 Colt of the Year was awarded to Tim Doulton for his strong all round performances and for demonstrating some mature captaincy.

The U13s reached the semi-final of their cup competition and finished mid-table in their league. Batsman of the Year was awarded to Ben Goodier, Bowler of the Year was won by Josh Allen, and U13 Colt of the Year was presented to Kersley Sutton for carrying his Colts form into senior 3rd XI and 2nd XI matches.

As the light faded, the senior awards were made. The club would like to thank Ann Horton from sponsors Hammett and Associates for attending on the evening to make the presentations.

The 3rd XI were first up. This young side (with one notable 'oldie') learned a lot during the season and many will be pushing for 2nd XI places next season.

The 3rd XI Batting Award went to Oliver Pinnock whilst Daniel Thomas took the Bowling Award. Dan was also presented with a special prize for getting his first senior five wicket haul. Not to be outdone, brother James was also rewarded for making his first senior hundred in the same match!

Fresh from the kitchen, Captain Hunt made a shorter than usual but no less rousing speech after a successful campaign saw his team finish second in the league.

They could yet become champions and gain promotion after issues with some technicalities in the new league rules.

Stuart Wight won the Batting prize for scoring over 400 runs - he also received a special award for making his first senior 100.

The Bowling prize went to the skipper proving that a mix of youth and experience is essential for success, whilst Chris Aplin's first hundred also gained him recognition.

The coveted Young Player of the Year trophy was also won by a 2nd XI player - following in the footsteps of some illustrious club members of yesteryear.

Tim Mitchell's increasingly mature batting and bowling ensured he got his name etched into the history books.

Finally Ben Morgan took to the stage for the 1st XI awards. Never one to prolong his time in the spotlight, Captain Morgan presented the 1st XI Bowling Shield to Michael Wheeler and the Andy Cottam Award for Most Improved Player to Ben Libby for his consistently economical and threatening bowling.

The skipper also held aloft the Corinthian Cup which was won for the first time in the club's history. Morgan was then presented the Batting Prize for achieving the highest run aggregate.

The Clubman of the Year was unusually won by four people! Jenny and Cliff Sutton and Pete and Mandy Thomas were hugely influential in helping the 3rd XI run smoothly and have found themselves jobs to do on

Indoor season underway

HONITON

THE Honiton Indoor Bowling season started this week with the traditional Ladies verses Gents Match, four rinks each played with the usual great sense of fun and competition.

The score is not the important thing in these matches but the friendships formed which is just as well as the match turned out a draw at 82 shots and two rink wins each.

The men seemed to have the upper hand with Dulcie Broughton's the only four ahead for some time and by quite a margin keeping the ladies within striking distance.

Yvonne Rayner's four finally got their act together and surged ahead of Dennis Hillyear's four reducing the men's lead.

A late surge of two twos and a three by Tracy Crawford's team got the ladies to one shot behind with only Dulcie Broughton against Steve Dommatt to play their bowls. Everyone stayed in the hall to watch the last bowls so no pressure. Dulcie held shot and played first, a covering shot through the head.

Steve got shot with his first bowl, Dulcie replied with her final bowl getting the shot back and Steve failed to win back the shot leaving the ladies the one shot they needed for a draw. Well missed, Steve.

A great result meant everyone could relax and enjoy their tea.

For the ladies - Linda Vince, Joan Mackintosh, Liz Fielding and Dulcie Broughton; Jean Mitchell, Maureen Parsons, Carol Smith and Yvonne Rayner.

The Open Day held on Sunday 22nd was great success with 36 people turning out to try their hands at bowls.

Eight of these signed up for membership that day and a further five have joined since which is a great result.

It is the club's intention to team each new member with a buddy to help them integrate into the club activities and with bowling if needed.

If you missed the open day but would still like to try your hand then please contact secretary, Peter Goodwin, on 07710 245569, who will arrange a convenient time for you to visit and play.

FENITON

THE mixed team finished the season with a very close and exciting seven rink match against Crediton losing by 122-132.

The winning rinks were N Cox, J Livings and R Smith 22-18, B Halse, J Rolph, D Phillips and L Ley 19-17 and D Morris, J Skinner, A Coyne and A Kury 17-15.

The Final Drive was well supported by club members, the winning rink with +16 was Ru Clarke, G Perryman and A Kury and the runners-up with +8 were D Sanders, J Skinner and I Veitch.

After an excellent buffet, the club captain Kevin Lovering thanked all members and made presentations to members who had contributed to making the season such a success.

Record breaking Rob

MIKE Lee set the Manor Farm hill record at the inaugural meeting two years ago, and returned to the Charmouth course this weekend for the two Pulman's View From sponsored events to claim two wins and set a new course record in his OMS 2000M racing car.

Lee was in a class of his own in the Woolbridge Motor Club events, the Suzuki powered OMS providing the perfect balance of speed and agility for previous British Leaders Champion to showcase his skills, taking the prestigious Fastest Time of the Day award in both events.

In the Saturday meeting it was 2012 victor Dave Sims who mounted the fastest challenge recording a 27.09 in his two-litre Ralt RT33/34.

The following day it was another Ralt, this time the older RT3 version of John Burton that ran the overall victor closest. Burton, like Sims, was contesting the 1600-2000cc Racing car class and again like Sims took class honours with a best climb of 26.62 seconds.

It was only during the Sunday meeting that Lee found the pace to break the outright hill record and set a new benchmark of 25.13, eclipsing his previous record by half a second.

The on-track action was intense throughout the two meetings with new class records being set on twenty five occasions.

Charmminster driver Rod Thorne was amongst those re-writing the record book.

Having taken the season off, the garage proprietor made the View From events his first drive of the year with the mighty five-litre V8 Rover powered Pilbeam MP43 sports racer.

It did not take long for him to return to form with a new over 1800cc Sports Libre record on his first official climb on Saturday with a time of 27.62 seconds.

An off-course excursion on his second run prevented any further improvement but his class win was secure as Andrew Forsyth, who was guest driver for the weekend, became accustomed to his steed.

The following day saw Forsyth picking up the pace when he took an early lead, in addition to a record, with a 27.30 second ascent.

The car's owner was not to be denied however and re-tallied with a time of 26.90 seconds to take the win and another new record.

Honiton motor technician Robert Thomson contested the Road-Going Series production (1400-1800cc) category with his Vauxhall Nova and like Thorne soon became embroiled in a battle which netted a new class record.

The hard charging Jonathan Wright (Volkswagen Golf GTI) kept Thomson honest all weekend, obliging the General Motors pilot to set a new record of 30.57 seconds during the Saturday event; bettering Wright's existing mark by seven hundredths of a second.

On Sunday Thompson lowered his own record on both runs to leave it at 29.90 seconds and clinch victory.

Lyme Regis driver Craig Moore was once again dominant in the rally car class repelling the challenge of Vauxhall Corsa driver Forrest Eyles on both days and regaining his class record with a 29.08 second final climb.

Although unable to regain his class record Modified Specialist Production Car driver Geoff Blake took a brace of class wins in the two-litre Vauxhall powered Westfield SEi he campaigns with his father Graham.

Running in reverse for Exmoor run's tenth anniversary

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS

with Dave Mutter

ON SEPTEMBER 29th Graham Newton took part in the 10 mile Doone run. This year being the 30th anniversary it was decided to run it in reverse, which meant the runners were faced with a very steep start up the zigzag path from Lynmouth to Lynton and the Valley of Rocks.

In all the course includes over 2,000 feet of climbing along part road, part trail, part footpath, coastal paths, wooded riverside banks and fell side slopes.

The race was won by Arran Tocknell in 1:10:26. AVR Graham Newton came in 32nd out of 200 runners, in 1:28:20 to win the unique over 60s men's trophy.

Luke Reed had a slight mishap on his push bike on September 20th, taking a trip over the handlebars!

This wasn't the best preparation for Sunday Etonman Half Ironman at Dorney Lake in Surrey.

Luke got to the start line slightly battered and bruised, but ready for the challenge ahead.

The swim was 1,900m around the Olympic Rowing Lake. Luke came out of the water 12th out of the 145 starters!

On to the 10 lap 56 mile bike course, and it was soon apparent that there was a problem as one in three competitors seemed to get punctures.

Unfortunately Luke didn't avoid this, on lap three Luke picked up a puncture which he managed to fix within a four of five minutes then carried on.

Onto lap seven and Luke got another puncture so he ran back to transition to get some spares, got back to the bike fixed the puncture then finished the lap.

This time the repair hadn't worked, so he ran back to his car, got a spare wheel, swapped it over then managed to eventually finish the bike course in 3:04:11, losing around 27 minutes to punctures.

Luke then put the bike problems behind him and stormed around the four lap run course in 1:31:21, picking up 22 places, finishing 17th overall.

Luke would like to thank all those that have helped and supported him this season. He's now off for a few months rest.

N1 TRIATHLON CLUB

THE triathlon season is drawing to a close and what a season it has been for the N1 Tri club.

The New Forest Middle Distance race has become a favourite.

A lake swim of 1.2 miles followed by 56 miles of cycling in the beautiful New Forest and finally a 14 mile run (over distance from the usual) taking in a forest 'roller coaster' - a real test!

The N1 members for the race comprised for the main part people who were racing "Middle Distance" for the first time and two who were experiencing their first ever race!

The event attracted 250 plus competitors. Seasoned triathlete Tom Elliott led the club home in ninth place overall in 4:46.

Alex Todd stepped up a race distance and gave his all finishing in 26th place in five hours exactly.

The next two N1 athletes registered a significant achievement. This time a year ago neither could swim effectively and triathlon was far from their minds.

Phil Bayliss and Garry Perratt are well known runners with the Axe Valley Runners; for both this was their first ever race and they both excelled.

Perratt used the whole experience as a learning exercise for the future but made sure his prowess as a runner was in evidence as he stormed the run section. His final time was 5:50.

Bayliss, who won his age

■ ESSENTIAL BEAR: The N1 Tri Club members were accompanied by their mascot 'IronTed' at the recent New Forest event category, made the podium finishing in an incredible 5:51.

Next home was Phil Rees who, ravaged by cramp, still managed a very respectable 6:01.

Hadley Davies another in new territory managed his race extremely well and finished 6:00.

Rae Owens was the sole club female club representative but as usual she gave her best and demonstrated an attitude that inspires her fellow club members she completed in 6:29.

Over at Langport Sprint

Triathlon some of the club women were strutting their stuff.

Well done to Sally Hutter, the first N1 woman home, Ceri Henkus, Vanessa Glyn Jones, who won her age category for good measure, closely followed by Jane Down.

Axe Cliff ladies continue great run

AXE CLIFF GOLF CLUB

AXE Cliff Golf Club ladies are having a remarkable season.

This year we entered the Devon League which comprises 18 teams from all across Devon.

We were drawn against four clubs, so had eight matches in all. At the end of this the Axe Cliff team came out at the top of their table.

The next step was Finals Day Friday, September 20th at Tiverton Golf Club.

Finals day this year meant that the two victorious teams from the morning semi-finals had the honour of going back out in the afternoon to play the final.

It was an early start, reporting in at 7:15am for tee-off times from 8am onwards.

The weather proved to be kind to us - with almost no wind - a tremendous relief after the past week, and the course was in great condition.

Axe Cliff were drawn against Wrangaton ladies in the morning, playing some very tough matches.

We waited anxiously for the final match to come in and found to our great excitement and trepidation that we had emerged victorious. Fingle Glen ladies were our next rivals.

Lunch was a brief affair and we headed off to the first tee once more.

The afternoon matches were even tighter than the morning's. Our first player out, Helen Kenworthy, was all square on the 18th green so had to go on to the 1st tee again.

She eventually won on the 20th. All the other games were keenly fought, many going the full 18 holes.

Finally the score came in - we had won three matches to Fingle Glen's four, making us the runners up.

Although we were naturally disappointed not to have won, we were, nevertheless, delighted to have achieved such a great result with a very small section.

HONITON GOLF CLUB

East Devon Trophy

MEMORIES of Andy Harrison's captaincy as he led the Honiton team to a last match victory in last year's East Devon Trophy win were in the minds of this year's team as we headed to Sidmouth to defend the trophy.

Honiton, Sidmouth, Axe Valley and East Devon all provide teams of ten players annually to do battle for the coveted trophy.

We play in groups of four (one from each team) to a Stableford format with the best six scores from each team making their final total.

Last year Andy Wall's 30pt final round snatched the cup from East Devon.

This year was no less dramatic with barely six points dividing the top three teams with, miraculously, Sidmouth, the home team, pushed into second place. With a dramatic charge at the end Axe Cliff secured victory with 179pts.

Congratulations to the Honiton team for putting up such a sterling defence.

Mixed Section

THIRTY-six members enjoyed the autumn sunshine playing for the monthly drawn for partners Greensome Stableford Chivers Goblets.

This month's holders of the Goblets are Linda McLaughlin and Andy Sharland with an excellent 43pts.

Following closely in second place with 42pts - with very few shots - were Su Calver playing with the Club Professional Adrian Cave.

Third place with 38pts were Linda and John Northover and in fourth place were Lesley Farley and Bob Barnes with 37pts on c/b.

Ladies Section

OUR competitive golfing season ended in great style on Wednesday with the traditional Autumn Closed.

Prizes were awarded for best on the day and, this year, these reflected the achievements of players during a great season.

Overall winner of the day and the Betty Harris Memorial Cup, with a best net score of 71, was Ann Trayling who has quietly but consistently put in high scoring cards throughout the year.

Winner of the Best Gross score was Henrietta Bradshaw, today scoring 89, but with a handicap that has tumbled almost monthly this year; and not surprisingly the Longest Drive Cup went to Tricia Swindell whose swing and distance are legendary.

In Silver Division, 1st place went to Elizabeth Ward with a net 77, while Su Calver was 2nd with net 79 c/b from Diana Gee in 3rd also with net 79.

Lesley Oxenham was a very deserving winner of Bronze 1 Division with net 73, and again 2nd and 3rd places were decided on c/b with Linda Blundell just ahead of Penny Blackburn, both scoring net 77.

Bronze 2 Division winner was Judith Newberry with net 77, 2nd place went to Jan Lloyd with net 80 and Monica Lacy took 3rd place with net 81. Nearest the pin on 2nd for Bronze Division was Catherine Hunt, and on 12th for Silver Division was Elizabeth Ward.

Seniors Section

THE greens were slow after rain, but that did not prevent the winners of the Seniors Texas Scramble scoring in the low sixties.

Big cup defeat after Tigers take the lead

AXMINSTER Town have made an early exit from the Throgmorton Cup – despite taking an early lead at Colyton Grammar School on Saturday.

The Tigers held their own in the first half against Appledore and took the lead through Ben Vine ten minutes into the second half.

But from then on it was all Appledore who banged in five goals in the last half hour.

Axminster are on cup duty again this coming Saturday with a home (Colyton Grammar School) first round Devon County Premier Cup tie against Roborough from the Plymouth and West Devon League who have won their last three league games on the trot.

By Philip Evans

The Tigers' next league game in the South West Peninsula East division will be on Saturday, October 12th when they travel to Plymstock who sit four places above Axminster in the league table, having won three of their seven opening games.

Also in action in the Devon Premier Cup on Saturday are Beer Albion – at home to Windmill – and Seaton Town who make the journey to Torridgeside. Local interest in the second round of the Devon Senior Cup will revolve around Axmouth, who entertain Elmore, and Colyton who host the University of Exeter.

Seaton Reserves have been drawn at home to Feniton in the second round (East) of the Devon Intermediate Cup, whilst Millwey Rise will entertain Beer Reserves in the same competition.

Axminster Town Reserves, one victory from their first three games in the Devon and Exeter Division Three, will be looking for maximum points at Woodbury.

■ AFTER a successful season, Seaton Cricket Club members gathered at the Court Lane ground for their annual presentation of awards.
